Or if you have two prime time courts booked later in the week, then you can book a third prime time court on that Tuesday. This rule applies to prime time bookings only. This rule is designed to re-book last minute cancellations and to allow people to take advantage of court cancellations on a day-by-day basis.

For doubles court prime time bookings, the booking must be cancelled by the day before the booking if all 4 players have not yet been identified. If any 'Guest' position has not been converted to a member's name by noon on the day of the booking, a guest fee may be levied at the discretion of the board, but all members are responsible to make sure guest fees are paid when a guest is planned to be included in the booking.
